

LAST REMAINING SEATS

2009

To help ensure your convenience and enjoyment, please take a moment to read this important information.

General Information

- Due largely to theatre policy, we cannot allow any ticket holders inside the theatres (the lobby or the auditorium) before the doors open at 7 p.m. If you arrive before 7 p.m., you will have to stand in line outside the theatre.
- Programs start at 8 p.m. and usually end between 10:30 and 11 p.m.
- All performances are general seating, except for a limited number of seats reserved for Last Remaining Seats sponsors and for Los Angeles Conservancy Cornerstone members at the Granite ($2,500), Marble ($5,000), and Travertine ($10,000) levels. If you are interested in upgrading your membership, please contact Adrienne Kisson at (213) 430-4204.
- All programs are subject to change without notice.
- We cannot provide ticket refunds or exchanges. If you find you cannot use your tickets, we gladly accept donated tickets for resale.

Accessibility

- The Orpheum Theatre is wheelchair accessible for both restrooms and seating, and can provide an assisted listening device upon advance request. Please contact the Conservancy at (213) 623-2489 at least twenty-four hours before your visit to arrange for this device.
- The Los Angeles Theatre has limited wheelchair accessibility and a single disabled access restroom. No assisted listening devices are available.
- The Million Dollar Theatre is not wheelchair accessible, and does not have assisted listening devices available.

Food and Drink

- Outside food or beverages are not allowed inside any of the theatres.
- We encourage you to take advantage of the “Nights on the Town” dining specials outlined on the enclosed insert (also available for downloading on the Downtown Dining page of the Last Remaining Seats section of our website).
- Cocktails, soft drinks, water, and snacks are available for purchase at the Orpheum. Limited snacks are available for purchase at the Million Dollar. Only water is available for purchase at the Los Angeles.
